

Libraire L'Androgyne

Institut
Simone de Beauvoir Institute

presents

PERSIMMON BLACKBRIDGE

Reading from her new novel

PROZAC HIGHWAY

Thursday, November 20 at noon

Simone de Beauvoir Institute

2170 Bishop, Room 101

PROZAC HIGHWAY is a provocative and hilarious novel about internet romance, pharmaceutical remedies for life and aging rebelliously.

Persimmon Blackbridge is a writer, performer, sculptor, cleaning lady and member of the notorious lesbian art collective, Kiss & Tell. She is the winner of a VIVA award for visual art (1991) and a Lambda Literary Award (with Kiss & Tell, 1995).

Ms. Blackbridge is a finalist for both the Ferro-Grumley Fiction Prize for gay and lesbian literature and the Lambda Literary Award for her 1997 novel, Sunnybrook, a true story with lies.

Ms. Blackbridge is the co-author of Her Tongue on my Theory, Drawing the Line, Still Sane.

Information: 848-2373